Report/Findings:

During a follow up the above mentioned dogs were found at the address. All animals are in good condition and have sufficient food. The owner informed the SPCA that his dog never bit any animal before. Owner reported that they only informed the cat owners that they should be careful cause if their cat comes into his yard, his dog might bite them. Wall is well secured. Owner said the dog never or cannot jump.

Action taken: (i.e. warning, education, seize, etc) Complainant was advised to always keep their cats at their home. No welfare concern. Investigation completed. Owner was made aware of consequences should his dog bite or injure other animal outside his yard.
