

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                         |
|--------------|-------------------------|
| Building:    |                         |
| Street:      | 29 MARIA FEDOROVA DRIVE |
| Suburb:      | DANVILLE                |
| Postal Code: | 0018                    |
| Date:        | 2023-03-09              |
| Time:        | 21:23                   |
| Inspector:   | OLGA RAMUSHU            |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Follow-Up Date: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Comments:       | DURING A FOLLOWUP , THE COMPLAINANT WAS RE-VISITED AND THE DOG WAS NOT FOUNDIN THE PROPERTY. THE NEIGHBOR CONFIRMED THAT THE OWNER LEFT AND THE NEW OWNERS TOLD THE PREVIOUS OWNER TO LEAVE WITH HIS DOG BEFORE THEY COULD MOVE IN. THE DOG WASTAKEN AWAYBYTHE OWNER AND THE PROPERTYIS NOW OWNED BY DIFFERENT PEOPLE WHO ARE WITHOUT PETS. |