General Report Comments: There was one puppy left on the property.
Owner said the other puppy died.
The dog treated at spca previously never went back home due to the owner being negligent to animals.
Warning was issued to the owner.
I advised him not to have any animals in future as he doesnt care for them despite being educated on basic animal care, deworming, vaccinations and proper diet.
The puppy was signed over to spca as unwanted.
No more animals left on the property.
