General Report Comments: On Saturday Petra and I went to the property. There were less pigs. The owner was in the process of closing down. The situation was getting bad. There was no water in some of the pens, Some of the pigs had no shelter, there was a broken corrugated iron on the ground and there was no bedding for the piglets. Warning was issued given till 1 July.
On the 1 July we went back some of the problems were sorted there was water, shade was provide and the broken corrugated iron was removed, there were 7 pigs left.
On 6 August we went back there were 3 pigs left. On September the place was closed down there were no pigs left.
