General Report Comments: Upon arrival i contacted the complaint and she granted me access to enter the property.

She explained that the dogs are aggressive and she is scared to walk past the house in question. I explained to her that the Landlord must sort out the matter as everyone renting at the property has dogs under their custody.

I went and knocked on the door. Kevin opened the door and i shared a nature of complaint while i was outside the door. Dogs barked while i was knocking and when the door was opened they didn't bark not even once. He then granted me access to enter his house which is a double story house. Kevin stated he's been away for two weeks to attend a funeral in Cape Town and he came back only yesterday. While he has been away the wife has been looking after the dogs. He further stated that they had visitors that were kids and the kids will leave the door opened without even noticing. He believes the complaint is about that.

We then wen into the backyard where the dogs are normally found . The property is well fenced and it is adequate space. The dogs have access to the house at all times. Water is provided for the dogs. The backyard has overgrown grass and the owner was busy doing the garden and removing objects that are not needed in the backyard. There was a spade also to prove that he is working on the backyard.

The dogs are not aggressive at all. They are friendly and i believe they bark if they hear a noise since the property is fenced with a wooden fencing.

The dogs are clinically and roaming freely on property. There is no sick dog observed and all the dogs are sterilized.

To follow up next week on the backyard.
