General Report Comments: Upon arrival i met Mrs Paruk and she granted me access to enter the property.

I shared a nature of complaint and she was angry claiming she knows the complaint.

She then pointed where the dog named Thor is kept. I went to the enclosure and observe the dog in question roaming freely having access to adequate kennel. The dog was trying to escape and attack me during the inspection. Thor appears to be in a good condition and the living environment is clean, also well maintained.

Mrs Paruk further stated that the reason behind building an enclosure is simple they are running a business on the property and vehicles are coming in and out. This was done to ensure the dog doesn't escape as before cos it can get knocked by a vehicle.

The dog is left to roam freely at night and the gardener who lives on the property make sure the dog is taken care off at all times.

I strongly believe the case can be closed. There is no contravention of the animals protection act 71 of 1972 and there is no further action that can be taken.
