General Report Comments: Upon arrival i met Nokulunga who contacted the SPCA

Nokulunga granted me access to enter the property and she explained the situation. Nokulunga's father is mentally disturbed and he was left alone at home to look after the dogs. The owner left last year November and the owner is in U.K.

Nokulunga and her mother are living in another area. Nokulunga came yesterday to check on his father and she was surprised to see the dogs underweight. The dogs were kept in short chains then Nokulunga went to discuss the matter with the family. The family agreed that the dogs must be signed over to SPCA as Nokulungas father is mentally disturbed and can't look after himself or animals.

The dogs were surrendered by Nokulunga as per family agreed upon.
