General Report Comments: Upon arrival I hooted and shouted no one came out. It appears that no one is home.

I observed the dog in question roaming freely on property and it can exhibit animal natural behavior. The dog is observed in a good condition and the living environment is clean. The dog has access to shelter that can protect the dog from all weather elements.

There is no contravention of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962. I strongly believe that the case can be closed.
