General Report Comments: Was met with owner. Upon entering the property I witness the cat with hair loss and discharge from eyes. Owner said she was at the vet the day before as she has been fighting with other cats. The male Boerboel X as far developet skin condition (mass hair loss) and the other adult female is also starting with a skin condition. The owner said they already got medication for the dogs as it is apparently allergies from a plant in the property which they already removed and the dogs are due to return to the vet the following day. The puppy (Narla) is in a good condition. Warning issued for vet reports on the three animals with the skin condition
