General Report Comments: Was met with an worker. The dog are being kept in a approx 3 x 3 m enclsoure with cement. They are operating a business from the property so they enclose the dog during the day and appearntly lets it out at night. There is a kennel avaible with a plastic pellet inside. Told the worker to tell the owner to place a sponge or blanket inside to provide more comfort as well as an alterntive plan should be made regarding the food and water bowls that are standing in the rain. The food is soaking wet and uneatable. The worker said they do give dry food at a differnet location on the property when they let her out but I said they must make a plan because even in the summer the water cant stand in direct sunlight. The enclosure was clean, the dog in a good condition and no sign of being chained. Obtained the owners details from the worker and called him. His wife answered and I explained to her too about the kennel and the bowls. She said they will make a plan. There apperntly is a cussion usually inside the kennel it was just wet so they took it out to dry.
