CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: The plot has been recenently purchased but the family have not moved in yet - the move will be completed on the weekend of the 13th. The family's unsterilised female yorkie was not present during the inspection as the dog is still by the previous home. The entire plot is enclosed with precast walls with electric fencing on top with a total height of 2m. The front gate is a solid metal gate. The yard is large and neat. The dogs are to sleep inside the house at night for their own safety.
