

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |               |
|--------------|---------------|
| Building:    |               |
| Street:      | 27 MAURICE    |
| Suburb:      | NEWTON        |
| Postal Code: | 7655          |
| Date:        | 2024-11-11    |
| Time:        | 13:46         |
| Inspector:   | INSPECTOR ONE |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2024-11-12                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Comments:       | The owner came to the spca and claims to not have a phone. He said people dropped a dog by him on Friday that apparently had a miscarriage. When he got home the dog was gone.He does own one dog and agreed to meet at his place tomorrow at 12h30 when he is on lunch. |
| Captured By:    | INSPECTOR ONE 2024-11-11 13:46                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |