General Report Comments: I, Elani arrived at the property and met with the owner named Kyse. I explained yo her what the complaint was about and she admitted that sometimes the dogs do get out of the property when they open the driveway gate.

Their property is open all around and Bear is an escape artist and jumps over the gates. I then walked around the large property with the owner. They have more than enough space and can go in and outside the house as they please. Kyse is mostly home to try and look after the dogs and cats. They also had a large bowl of fresh water and food inside the house.

I did educate her about sterilization etc.

No welfare concerns in terms of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962 were found.

We referred this case to the local law enforcement
