General Report Comments: Hugh and I arrived at Peanuts owners property. The owner was home and gave her details to us and admitted that one was hit by a car in the past. I asked her whether she doesnt want to surrender Peanut over to us as we can find a home for her but she refused.

I then asked why she has not come to claim Peanut by us or call us since she received our letters but she could not answer this.

I then issued a warning to:

- 1) If you fo not comr and claim Peanut within 24 hours at the SPCA, you eill relinquish the rights of ownership to the SPCA.
- 2) Additionally your property needs to be enclosed to ensure the safety of your animams.

She accepted and signed the warning. She claimed that some woman will vome tomorrow tp help her with the fencing.

To see whether she comes and claims Peanut by the end of tomorrow . If not Peanut becomes our property.
