CASE DISCUSSION NOTE

I called Brandon on the 084 number a few times but it just rang. I then decided to go to Juhantha Stables.

One of the workers opened the gate for me. Brandon was in his office at the stables with a visitor . I asked him whether they have started to do anything about the shelter. He said they havent and that the boss named Junior Smit was on holiday until Monday. He gave his contact details.

I am of the opinion to close this case as all the camps have trees and shaded areas. There are enough stables and a big indoor exercise ring where they keep horses when emergencies arise.

There is also always people on the premises that can assist.
