Comments:	Yamna called back and confirmed that Annabelle has been euthanized . The vet said Rusty and Cotton are next and would most likely need to be done in the next month. They did not do all of them as it was emotionally taxing. However, the veterinarian said he will cut out Snows growths and then he can still go about 1 to 3 years. Dr Van Zyl responded to my Whatsapp agreeing that Rusty and Cotton would be done next but Snow still has a good while to go. He also suggested that one dog should be adopted out. Because Snow the Great Dane was kept, I highly recommend a calmer dog such as Seun to be adopted to them but not Lady as she is too energetic. A meet and greet should also be done with especially Snow.
