General Report Comments: Elani and I,Hugh arrived at the business called Meat. We then walked inside and greeted one of the employees. We then asked her whether there had been any vagrants walking around with a dog .She mentioned that she hadn't seen any. We then walked across the road to where we could see a dog laying in front of the shop.

One lady then approached us who seemed to be the complainant and said that this was the dog mentioned in the complaint. We could then see that many shop owners had befriended the dog and also knew the owner but didn't spot him. We then tried interacting with the dog and he seemed very scared.

A moment later the supposed owner arrived and mentioned he wants to sign over the dog anyway . He then held the dog down and I put a lead around the dog. I then proceeded to the vehicle and Kevin who was the supposed owner signed the dog over.

We decided to go to the address to confirm whether it was his dog . We then arrived at the address and one elderly man then told us that the dog belongs to their neighbour. The dog follows Kevin when he leaves to town.

We then called the neighbours and they confirmed it was their dog . They also mentioned they would like to keep him. We then handed the dog back to them.
