Comments:	Hugh and I, Elani called the owner to find the exact location of the crying puppy. She explained that it is on the way to Hermon on the R44 and that there is a gravel road next to R44 Storage that takes you to the yarda of th houses. She said that she does not hear the puppy any longer and she could not give a apecific address/House number for the puppy. I told her that she needs to eablish which house it is and that we will do a driveby to see whether we hear anything. She said she does not know whether there are any welfare concerns regarding the puppy. I told her if she can determine whether anything is wrong she can let us know. Otherwise it is part of Law Enforcement. Hugh and I did a driveby but could not hear anything. To close for now until further notice.
