General Report Comments: Enzo and I, Elani arrived at the property with Texan to do a meet and greet again to see whether the dogs get along.
We first walked a bit down the farm gravel road to get some of Texans energy out . We then went inside the property with both dogs on leads. At this point, Xena has not snapped at Texan yet. Texan made himself home, drank water and each time Cena came close, he submitted by lying on his back. We praised Xena every time she did not do something .
The Jack Russel is old and not bothered by any other dogs.
We then let Texan off lead. He explored and submitted whenever Xena came close. We then let Xena off lead. We gave both attention and they did not snap at each other at all .
We went inside the house where they will mostly be. There was aircon inside. Texan immediately explored the house and then we all settled in the living room without any issue.
The yard is very big and its in the middle of a farm. There is water, its properly enclosed. Lovely home.
They then decided to rather get him the following day as they want everyone to be at home. They also leave the dogs inside the house when they are not there.
