General Report Comments: High and I, Elani arrived at the property to gollow up on whether the tortoises are removed and whether anything have changed as we are struggling to get a hold of Dimitri.
We went to the restiarant to talk to Karen. She was very hostile and abrupt and made us wait quite a while before assisting us. Eventually when she came out, I i gormed her that we are struggling to o get a hold of Dimitri via any form of telecommunication. She just said he is busy. She informed us that the staff cleaned and fed the morning.
When asked about the tortoise she said someone has been there. We didnt see the tortoises on this day. She informed us that only the fowl, sheep and 3 cattle are left. He moved the cattle to another farm and the remainder couldnt be moved as the female was pregnant.
We informed her that we will do a walk through and she allowed us to do this.
Dimitri has mostly complied. It was clean, hazardous material were oht of the camps, i vould see drainage pipes and lines for the dams for the fowl. And we only did see one sheep and 3 cattle left.

Florida has complied with most of my concerns. There are no contraventions of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962.
