

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                    |
|--------------|--------------------|
| Building:    |                    |
| Street:      | 1 A MINNAAR STREET |
| Suburb:      |                    |
| Postal Code: |                    |
| Date:        | 2025-03-03         |
| Time:        | 10:59              |
| Inspector:   | INSPECTOR ONE      |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                                  |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2025-03-03                                                                                                                                            |
| Comments:       | Dog is heavily pregnant. Might go in to labour before friday. They do not want the puppies and want to sterilize her. To ask liz if theres a sponsor. |
| Captured By:    | INSPECTOR ONE 2025-03-03 10:59                                                                                                                        |