ANIMALS IN GOOD CONDITION	Yes
VETERINARY PROBLEMS / HEALTH CO	Yes 	Billy had an inflamed leg
CONFINEMENT OF ANIMALS	Static Chain - adequate length	Olivia was on a static chain.

General Report Comments: Elani and I,Hugh arrived at the farm.We then started at Rachel Pietersens home.We could then see a large pitbull with an inflamed leg.Rachel then greeted us and allowed us access. We then explained that we are there to check on the welfare of all the animals.

She then agreed and we saw Billy's leg.She then said that he had been in a fight the previous day with the neighbours dogs and Elani explained that she should seek medical attention or surrender him if she cannot afford it.She then said that her son who's the owner of the dog will take the dog to the vet.We then agreed but also had to explain and educate her on building a running chain as Olivia was on a static chain.She then explained that she knows what it is.

Warning 124 was then issued to:

- Provide Olivia with an adequate collar/piping within 2 days.
- Provide Olivia with a running chain within 7 days.
- Provide Billy with veterinary treatment within 48hoursnas his right leg is injured.Mobile clinic c/o springbokweg and Jan van riebeek , Tuesday and Thursday 9:30-11:00 (R220)

The next house we went to was the house of Hannelie Frederick's.

We arrived at her property and she was standing on the outside waiting to take us through as she already knew we were there to assist them.She then allowed us access and we could see she had two male pitbull dogs(Tiger and Aia) who was in good condition.

We then arrived at Whitney Snyders house and they were on the inside.We then called from the outside and Whitney came outside we could then see that the dog who's name is AJ had everything he needed and we educated them on using a bigger water bowl to secure that the dog always had water.

The next house we then went to was Lucrecia Fortuin.We could see from the outside that there was people inside the house who eventually came outside. We then introduced ourselves and explained why we were there.She then agreed and we had no problems with her male pitbulls conditions and living conditions.

We then arrived at Rachel Van wyks house and we could see her male dog named Whitey from the outside and we could see that he was very protective and his living conditions were quite good.

We then arrived at Elaine Goosen which was the last house.We could see two dogs on the outside who were in okay condition and the living conditions was good.

We then gave pamphlets and told the tenants that they can call us for any education .

To follow up Wednesday.
