CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: I,Hugh arrived at the property and was greeted by her fiancée.I then introduced myself and explained to him what I would need to see.He then agreed and allowed me access.

Overall the space was big enough for a cat.I then asked whether it was the landlords responsibility to ensure that the trimmings of trees was to get removed or theirs.He then mentioned he recently moved in with his soon to be wife and that he wants to find out that information.

I then could see that it was a lovely home for Austin and that he would fit in nicely .

To follow up in a year.
