

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                  |
|--------------|------------------|
| Building:    |                  |
| Street:      | 16 SAINT CRISPIN |
| Suburb:      |                  |
| Postal Code: | 7654             |
| Date:        | 2025-05-06       |
| Time:        | 15:00            |
| Inspector:   | INSPECTOR ONE    |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                         |
| Follow-Up Date: |                                                                                                                                              |
| Comments:       | I,Hugh arrived at the property and saw that the dog was roaming freely in the yard.I tried calling from the outside but nobody came outside. |
| Captured By:    | NFA until further notice.INSPECTOR ONE 2025-05-06 15:00                                                                                  |