CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Elani arrived at the property and contacted Zharnel to see if anyone is home. She said they arent, sent me a pin location to the house.

I found the house and saw it is a connected farm house with a wire fence surrounding it. The neighbours do not have any animals and Milo is not a jumper as the fences are about 1.5m tall. They already had a large kennel in the back yard that is seperated from the front.

They have a stand pool and Zharnel told me Milo has a bed inside the house as well. This means they will allow him inside.

Pre home check for reclaim passed. They returned Milo as the adoptive owner died and they thought they wouldnt be able to look after him anymore. But then they regretted the decision.

Zharnel fetched Milo and donated us R800.
