General Report Comments: I, Elani, arrived at the property and met with Chante, the wife. The dogs had access inside and outside the property. They have two kennels outside, food and water. The yard is large and in the evenings they are inside.

The doberman did not have the collar on upon my inspection. I asked to see the collar that has a shock and vibrate function. They freely surrendered the collar over to me.

When tested it has a massive voltage.

I told them if people complain about the barking, they are more than welcome to contact the spca as this collar is inhumane and can cause massive injury.

Collar handed over.

Case can be closed.
