General Report Comments: I, Elani arrived at the property to see whether it is still necessary to apply for a court order. A young boy was outside the house so I asked him to call his grandmother. As I waited I saw the dog in the exact same situation as last time.

She was free roaming in a very dirty area with excess faeces and hazardous material surrounding her. The water bowls had dirty water in it. It looked like rain water. The shelter also still did not have flooring meaning the dog has to sleep on the cold soil or in debris.

Angeline came out and had the same excuse of her son working in cape town. I told her he had three weekends already to fix things. I asked her again whether she wants to rather surrender the dog and explained the definition of an owner to her according to the APA 71 of 1962. She does not want to surrender the dog due to it being her security.

I then told her okay and left. To apply for a court order due to non compliance.
