General Report Comments: I, Elani arrived at the landfill and asked in front for assistance. She called her supervisor and then told me that I may not go in. I then asked for the supervisors number named Sisi 073 724 7686 and she told me I can go in and that she will send someone.

I then waited for twenty minutes and called her again. She got angry and then said she told the woman in front that she must send me with the guard that was present. I called the guard and the lady from the booth shouted that I may not enter without approval. I shouted back that I just got it from her supervisor and took the guard around to the dogs.

I immediately noticed that the dog enclosures are kept under a roof in an open warehouse. They also had kennels inside the enclosures. They had water, it was clean and I couldnt find any concerns. I then saw Cisco vomiting bile and decided to call Louis from Dogd and All and inform him about the complaint and the fact that Cisco is vomiting.

This is when Nugen arrived and we discussed the minor changes that needs to be made. I informed him about the vomit. He provided me with the companys email and psira number as seen attached.

The handlers work the dogs in the evenings with their 12 hour shifts. During the day they rest.

To follow up with Nugen regarding a PAPA license.
