CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Hugh and I, Elani arrived at the property to do another follow up on the dogs on the premises. There were many people inside the property that we havent seen before. Before asking about the white pitbull, a young woman came out of the house and yelled whilst laughing saying the dog died and it is buried in the backyard. The other group of people responded to her saying you cannot claim that. From this we gained a suspicion that they might be hiding the dog and does not want to show us the dog. The girl claiming the dog is dead went inside to inform Rachel we are there and we heard her saying "Tell them the dog is not here". I repoded by saying we could hear everything she is saying. We are there to help. Rachel then emerged with a new younger dog and still claimed the dog died. They are unable to care for dogs evven though we have educated them extensively on what to do. We agreed to see whether they will get to the mobile clinic by Tueaday to see whether they will purchase Nexguard for this new dog.

Follow up on Tuesday and cobtinue with docket. We gave them another information pamphlet with all of our details.
