General Report Comments: Luciano and i,Hugh arrived at the property.I called from the outside and a young female came outside to greet me.

I explained to her why i was there and the nature of the complaint.She allowed us access and explained to us that she thinks the complaint derives from the fact that they were walking the dogs one day.The older poodle had dropped for an unknown reason and refused to get back up.I advised them that they should take her to a veterinarian just to see the cause of it but i could see no veterinary problems at that time.They mentioned that they would do so.

I looked through the living environment and i saw they feed the dogs hills.I saw bedding scattered everywhere,the dogs were in good condition and fresh water stations.
