Comments: Good morning

I need advice urgently please.

My daughter adopted a dog LOLLA from the SPCA in Wellington. They told her the owner was moving and could not take him with but I dont think this was the case.

Lolla "ate" a hole in a mat shoes and cushions but the last straw was a couch that cost R20 000.

Lolla is a house dog and is used to lying on couches and being kept warm and loved. She loves children.

A malawi guy who works for my daughter said his neighbour is very nice and wants the dog.

I was not happy and after enquiring Lolla I heard Lolla is tied up day and night and my heart is broken!!

I am going to fetch him but need the SPCA in Wellington to help me as I have no idea if she is dirty or what her condition is. I cannot keep her my husband is 72 and I am 68 and we live in a tiny apartment that does not allow dogs.

If she cannot be returned for a new adoption I would prefer to "put her down" out of the terrible life she is having now.

Please advise urgently as I want to fetch her this afternoon at 16h00 and need assistance to transfer her to the SPCA

Thank you kindly
Beryl
