General Report Comments: il observed a Boer bull male confined to a small space on the side of the garage against the wall which divide to thecomplainant'syard.The complainant has some video recording of the dog bering locked in the carage most of the time..Owner claims that she locked the dog only when is about to rain as the dog has a phobia for rain.But on my assessment it appears not be truth as owner did open the dog while i was there and i could see the excitement on the dog.The dog is was adopted from us owner should know better.A warning was issued and owner surrendered the dog.
