General Report Comments: I have observed two cats from the neighbour who is an accused, but when the cats saw people they runaway. There was no injured cat in the yard. The complainant came over and start swearing to the accuse. I have attempted to stop the argument but it was out of hand. I asked the complainant if i could see the cat which she claim is injured but she refused and indicated that she will take the cat herself to a vet. But on my observation it appears if the cat was not there, it appears if the complainant has issues with the neighbour.
