Note: Any concerns noted in this table must be explained in detail in the Inspector's report.

Report/Findings: On my arrival I found a white and black collie dog with a protruding eye with pus. Owner informed us that the dog was away and only came back in that condition. She was told that a cruelty-case could be open against her. I also informed her that if an animal is injured or sick she must contact the local SPCA urgently if she cannot afford a veterinary. Dog was signed over.

Action taken: (i.e. warning, education, seize, etc) Warning issued.
