Comments:	I could not locate the property as it seems difficult to find, I can't pick it up on the Google maps, I then called the complainant lindie to give me the correct address or pin location to the property but she says it was long time ago she can't remember but she also says that the problem was sorted out long time ago, she says it was sorted out that very same day. I then tried calling the respondent but the phone is on voicemail, I was instructed by elani to sms the respondent to meet up but if he does not respond within 24hours the case will be close. I sms the respondent at 15:10
