Good day Jessica,

I trust this email finds you well.

The below dog in question does in fact have access to adequation or shelter against the weather elements as the dog is kept indoors most of the time. Besides this, the owner has provided the dog with additional shelter on the outside as well. We have been to the property, randomly, on three occasions now where the dog comes from inside the main house upon our arrival at the property.

I trust this clarifies.

Kind regards,

Carina Bodenstein
