Comments: The dogs dont have matted coats as they were groomed. The problem is not the gates that need to be fixed, the gates are always left standing opened as there's a lot of tenants on the property. It is a big property and order to keepp the animals on the property, they will have to be chained or confined which Will then result in a contravention of the Animals Protection Act. In my opinion is best to leave the dogs roaming freely on the property.

Case can be closed NFA.
