Subject: LEXUS

Good morning to all concerned,

By sending a screenshot of my personal Facebook account, someone reported a dog in Bellville South named Lexus last night after seeing our video of her frail, emaciated body and we were then phoned by AH for her address but as you've heard from me before regarding my safety, I am now very concerned that that screenshot gets out and in turn threatens my safety. Even though the owners will know the report is because of me, I have spoken to Luthia, the person who sent the screenshot but would appreciate reassurance from your side that my name and my organisations name, are kept out of this.

If Lexus is confiscated immediately (AH said it's up to Jaco), I'm prepared to go as far as deleting Lexus' posts in case they find them and it adds fuel to the fire and with that would appreciate if you could make an exception to the rule and give feedback earlier than usual so that I can delete the posts etc.

Please respond at your earliest convenience

Kind regards,
Jessica Robertson
