General Report Comments: Upon arrival accompanied by Cadet M.Alexander we observed the animal in question who appeared to be Old , underweight and suffering from underlying illness . Cat had access to food , shelter and water. Owner was educated about keeping an animal who is suffering in pain and agony .

Mr Natherson was given the option to surrender his cat to spca but refused. Mr natherson advised us that he would be taking his cat himself to the PDSA for veterinarian report and to provide Cape of goodhope spca with that report within 18 hours. Owner was advised to take the cat to the vet for adequate treatment.

Mr Nathanson was issued with a warning(21046) for the above mentioned welfare concerns.
