CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Upon Inspection, i met with Blandine. She told me that she is a tenant on the property and only moved in 4 days ago. There are multiple tenants that stay on the property but she was alone at the property at the time of inspection and said that she don't have details of the owner. She told me that the neighbors came to tell her this morning that the dog was hanging at the back of the property but was dead already and the owner was not home so the owner don't know about it. She granted me access into the property but there were no other dogs on the property. I observed a wooden kennel and water available on the property. I also observed a runner that was installed and it was 13 slabs long. I went to check at the back of the property but the body of the dog was not there.

I issued a warning stating in the future, to not chain a dog close to the wall/fence to prevent it from jumping over and getting hang/stuck and can cause death to the animal. Blandine didn't feel comfortable to sign the warning but said that she will give it to the onwer.
