Ipon our arrival I observed that the rubble had been cleaned from the yard and although there was faeces, it was not accumulated. Christell said she hasn't been feeling well and so didn't pick the faeces up over the last 2 days. Yaaseen and I observed that the amount of faeces is consistent with what she said. She said she'd clean it today. Both dogs are no longer underweight and their ribs are no longer visible. We expalined to Christell that she must send photos of the faeces cleaned today (as it is not yet accumulated) and that if she doesn't, then I will issue a warning. However, my previous warning has been complied to.
