General Report Comments: Upon arrival I met with Kevin and his wife. They immediately welcomed me in saying that they have been expecting me.

They have cat traps from LE in their yard. They only have one if them set up for marauding cats. They told me that they have caughts that have been a nuisance by defecating in their veggies pots and yard and has brought them to the SPCA immediately. According to them their dog diggs it up and eats it and makes it sick.

He knows to check the trap regularly and claims to notify LE
