Good morning Roshin

Thank you for the feedback received below.

Just to inform you that our neighbours have returned home last night (not sure why as they said they're away until the 5th, but nevertheless it's a win for the dog as she's not alone now), so there is no immediate urgency. I feel a bit silly having done this and they have now returned, but on the other hand still think that this is unacceptable as they have been away since the 13th. And as mentioned, this is something they do quite often as the wife's family lives in the Northern Cape on a farm, so they take advantage of all the holidays and long weekends to go visit them. I looked through my recordings as I've logged a C3 with law enforcement previously (they did not come out though) and this was in Sept. Also over Easter weekend.

I'm not sure if an inspector will now still come out, but just wanted to inform you that they have returned home last night.

Thank you again for your time and the feedback received, it is much appreciated.

Many thanks,

Kind regards
