General Report Comments: One of the workers/tenants on the property saw me approaching the gate and I asked for the owner of the animals. A young Muslim gentleman, by the name of Shukier, introduced himself as the owner. He was very surprised to hear about there being 4 dogs on the property.

I saw ONE tan male boerbull on the property. He confirmed that they only have one dog on the property. The dog had access to a kennel, which was clean and an adequate shelter against the elements. There was water in the dogs bowl and the dogs living area was clean, I did not even see fresh faeces in the dogs living area. The dog appears to be in a fair condition with a glossy coat and pink mucous membranes.

There was no sign of a tether or chain on the property.

Complainant to be reminded that vexatious complaints, are considered an offence, in term of the Animals Protection Act.

Case can be closed, as there are no welfare concerns with either the dog or it's living conditions.
