CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Upon arrival I hooted and called out and got no response. I called the provided number and spoke with the owner Ashleigh. I introduced myself and stated my reason for the call.

She told me that her dog was given back to her to say her goodbyes and told to bring him back after a few days. She said that she took him back yesterday but PDSA was too busy and was told to bring him back after New Years day.

According Ashleigh the dog was diagnosed with lymphoma and was given two injections to aid him until after new years day as he was not eating.
