Dear Dail

Thank you for your further email.

We are sorry to hear that matters have deteriorated. If the owners complied with the warnings issued then we close the case. Unfortunately, we cannot keep each and every case open for continued follow-ups. We rely on the complainants to inform us if matters deteriorate again.

Please can you provide us with the address of where you are concerned about, as we have two different addresses you complained about. Once we have the address of concern, we will send out an Inspector to investigate.

Looking forward to receiving the address from you.

Kind regards

Jaco Pieterse

Dear Jaco

I hope this email finds you well.

Thank you for your feedback however the current situation is quite bad, things have gone from bad to worse with regards to the dog's welfare.

There is now an additional dog that they have added to the equation and the food issue has gone from bad to worse.

The dog is currently severely injured from these mistreatment and has open wounds.

Kindly advise what measure does the SPCA take to prevent animal cruelty other than giving out warnings to the owners every time there is a complain.

At what stage do you come and take the dogs?

I am writing this to you as a concerned neighbour that is witnessing animal cruelty everyday and yet the actions that are taken by you are not helping the issue at hand.

Your response is highly appreciated.

Kind Regards,

Dail Adams
