Dear Dail

We trust that this email finds you well.

We would like to give you an update on the matter. An Inspector has been to the property and the owner was issued with a written warning. A follow-up is due next week to ensure compliance. We have to issue the owner with warnings first to give him/her an opportunity to fix the concerns, failing which, then we can apply for a court order to remove the animals.

We will provide you with final feedback once the matter is concluded.

Kind regards

Jaco Pieterse
Chief Inspector
