Subject: RE: Re Inspector Werner Alwyn Taljaard

Good day Sir/Madam

1. We acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated 08 April 2023.
2. We do not, at this juncture, intend to respond to each and every point contained in your correspondence under reply. Our failure to deal with such allegations should not be construed as an admission as to the contents or correctness thereof and we hereby reserve our rights to deal more fully therewith at a later stage in writing and/or in the appropriate forum.
3. Kindly provide us with a copy of your mandate to act on behalf of Mr Marcellino Owen Corelissen ("the client"). We are under no obligation to respond until we receive same.
4. For the sake of brevity, kindly furnish us with the documents you alleged in your correspondence, including the legislation you rely upon, in particular:
 - a. "according to the regulations under the prescribed laws, the owner has made the enclosures larger than the minimum required as per the law."; and
 - b. "How come you stated the warnings giving the owner the warnings etc, but did not allow the required time frame by law to rectify."
5. We reserve our rights in toto.

Kind regards

Jaco Pieterse
Chief Inspector
