Hi SPCA

I had all 3 dogs again this morning with me and the girl is scratching her face all the time.

I did ask for feedback on whether the female was in a condition that you deem 'fine' and not needing any medical attention - I know you guys are super busy but Its over a year of this now and I am not sure what more to say. Gashes in the head, tied up with wire, no teeth etc etc - at what point are we going to save them from what is only brutality. I want these dogs situation to be treated as urgent please. I cannot look at one of them hurt again, it breaks my heart.

Kind Regards

Denise Hardenberg
