Comments:	According to Dany David's, who is the public prosecutor of the case, she sat down with the accused defense, they agreed that the accused will plead guilty, however the magistrate still have to look at our charge sheet and take the decision from there, she was not sure when the magistrate will have a look at the charge, the public prosecutor took my cellphone number and promised to call me as soon as they finalized the case. I have requested the public prosecutor to make sure that the denial of ownership is included in the sentence, she agreed, then we agreed with public prosecutor that i may leave the court room, I will give her a call by Friday if I didn't get a call from her.
